

May 6, 1971

Mrs. Perkins ✓

Services for Mrs. Daisie Perkins, 71, Claremont, were held Saturday, May 1, at 2:00 p.m. in the United Methodist Church in Claremont with the Rev. Preston Brown officiating. Burial was in the Groton Cemetery.

Mrs. Perkins died Thursday at St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen.

The church choir sang "How Great Thou Art" and "The Old Rugged Cross," accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Pierson, organist.

Pallbearers were Lowell Beck, Russell Beever, C.D. Nietert, Elwood Patterson, Wesley Pierson and Emery Stohr.

Mrs. Perkins was born Sept. 24, 1899, at Renville, Minn., and was married to Carl Perkins at Aberdeen on Nov. 19, 1921. She has been a resident of the Claremont area since 1920.

She was a member of Adah Chapter of the OES of Claremont and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Don (Marjorie) Hinrichs, Claremont; three sisters, Mrs. Auralie Sandstad, Hibbing, Minn., Mrs. Lulu Stone, Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Alice Belanger, Owatonna, Minn.; and four grandchildren. Her husband, four brothers and three sisters preceded her in death.

The Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel of Groton was in charge of arrangements.